March 5, 2011

Dear Chorus Families, Friends, and Supporters of CCW,

I am pleased to present this year's catalogue for our 2011 15th Birthday Party and Gala. Dianne Straus, our retiring Executive Director Extraordinaire, has served as this year's Auction Chair, and she has put together a fabulous event to celebrate our 15th Anniversary. And, as they have for so many years, Bill and Jean Catherwood have been tirelessly working for the past several months to insure that this will be our biggest Auction/Benefit yet. Special thanks also go to the Catherwood siblings, who year after year have made our registration and close-out the smoothest operation possible. Thanks as well go Board members, parents and friends who have donated the exciting array of items for the silent and live auction.

Monies raised at this auction are used to fund scholarships, to help with general operating expenses, and to ensure that the music program of the Children's Chorus of Washington can continue to operate at the highest possible artistic level. Listening to CCW's Treble and Bel Canto choristers perform tonight will inspire all of us to give generously to make sure these talented kids have opportunities to showcase their musical gifts.

LET'S RAISE $15,000 FOR OUR 15th BIRTHDAY!

As tonight's guests, you will have a chance to help us "Raise $15,000 for the 15th!" by funding CCW's music program through our annual Live Auction appeal. At the conclusion of our Live Auction, raise your bid cards high! When you see your child on stage at National City Christian Church or the Kennedy Center or Strathmore and hear the angelic voices of CCW raised in song along side renowned professional adult artists, you will know that you helped make it happen! The success of this fundraiser, in addition to private donations and foundation grants, encourages us to work harder and allows CCW to plan boldly for the future.

The Children's Chorus of Washington has a tremendous impact on the lives of the children in the program and the thousands of audience members who hear them. I am grateful to you, our CCW families, alumni and friends, for your continuing support.

March 2011

Dear Friends and Supporters of the Children's Chorus of Washington,

Welcome to CCW's 15th Birthday Party and our 2011 Gala!! We are very excited to be celebrating this important milestone with so many of you. The children continue to delight audiences with their professional singing capabilities, and CCW's Board and staff continue to work hard to make the music education experience a meaningful one for the choristers.

This year, as in past years, is a year of many accomplishments. Our biggest accomplishment is the international release of our professionally produced CD, The Great American Folksong, in collaboration with Cathy Fink, Marcy Marxer, and Kim & Reggie Harris. If you have not heard the CD yet, you are missing a delightful musical experience. It is exceptional. The CD has been distributed widely in the United States and internationally, and we are excited by the potential of a higher profile for CCW.

Since tuition only covers about one-third of our expenses, we do rely upon the Gala to help sustain the Chorus and its first-quality music education program. We hope you will enjoy the evening and bid often on the delightful items secured this year!

Beyond this evening's fundraising objectives, our annual gala provides an opportunity for all of us to come together to renew acquaintances, make new friends, and celebrate our shared interest in this revered musical organization. I relish this opportunity to thank the many people to whom CCW owes so much for its success. Most importantly I thank the many parent volunteers who support the Chorus by assisting at rehearsals, serving as ushers, handling stage risers, and selling tickets. I also want to recognize the dedicated members of our Board of Directors who work diligently with me to continue to build a strong and secure base for chorus operations. Finally, we all owe a huge debt of gratitude to Jean and Bill Catherwood for their continued support and hard work on the Gala.

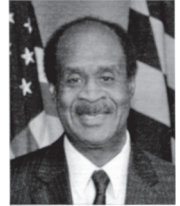

I know you all share my sense of deep satisfaction and pride every time the Children's Chorus of Washington takes the stage. These wonderful young people are our future, and their musical and character development are what CCW is all about. Thank you for being part of our CCW family. Please enjoy the evening!

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the residents of Montgomery County, it is my great pleasure to welcome everyone in attendance at this year's fundraising gala for the Children's Chorus of Washington.

Our region is fortunate to enjoy a wide range of cultural organizations that permit our residents to both participate in and benefit from artistic expression. The Children's Chorus of Washington is one of the organizations that give so much to our community. The CCW is a nationally and internationally acknowledged children's chorus whose members come from over 60 public and private schools in the Washington area. They have performed along with such outstanding groups as the National Philharmonic, Baltimore Symphony and the National Symphony orchestras, as well as the Master Chorale of Washington and the Washington Choral Arts Society, in prestigious venues such as the Music Center at Strathmore, The White House, and the Kennedy Center.

Thanks to your support, the CCW celebrating 15 years of providing a venue for our children to express their musical gifts. Your generosity not only provides for a solid foundation of scholarship and musical training for the participants, but contributes to the rich tapestry of arts expressions that adds to the quality of life that we in Montgomery County enjoy.

Best wishes to the CCW for continued success and many thanks to all who so generously give to support the CCW's efforts.

Sincerely,

Isiah Leggett

15      1995 BAROLO - SEGHEISIO, ALDO E RINALDO - VIGNETO LA VILLA - MONFORTE D'ALBA

The deep ruby-colored 1995 Barolo Vigneto La Villa is a Burgundian-style wine with a nose of cherry-liqueur, dried herbs, smoke, toasty oak, and seaweed scents. There is low acidity and medium to full-bodied plush texture. Robert Parker rating - 90.

16      2007 COTE ROTIE-PIERRE GAILLARD-RHONE VALLEY

Pierre Gaillard is one of the most capable craftsmen in the northern Rhône, and the true source of wines from the region's most dynamic, yet still virtually unknown, terroirs. The 2007 is 90% Syrah, 10% Viognier. Smells pure & fresh; raspberries; plum. Juicy fruits with hints of smoke and tar; touch of spice; gentle back-end tannins; good acid-tannin balance; 12.5% alc. is not noticeable; incredible balance.

Donor: Robin Levis & Bill Chin

Donor Value: $75

17      2006 WILLIAMS SELYEM PINOT NOIR RUSSIAN RIVER VALLEY

This wine reminds me very much of our 2002 Russian River. The nose is fragranced with ripe plums, wild blackberry jam, violets, forest floor, crème brûlée and honey-cured bacon. Your mouth fills with blackberries, blueberries, sassafras, nutmeg and toasty oak. The ripe, concentrated tannins are rich and round across your palate and the balanced acidity and berry finish is long and lingering. A fuller bodied wine that should get better with 5-6 years of age.

Donor: Ann & Paul Friedman

Donor Value: $75

18      2005      CHATEAU   ST   JEAN   CABERNET
SAUVIGNON CINQ CEPAGES

Sonoma County 2005 Cinq Cepages ("Five Varieties") is a Bordeaux-style blend, with aromas of boysenberry, black cherry and violet. The palate offers a graceful balance between fruit extract and fine-grained tannins. The wine has beautiful oak integrations and a lushness throughout that leads to a lingering finish.

20      2005      TOMMASI   AMARONE   DELLA
VALPOLICELLA CLASSICO

The 2005 Amarone della Valpolicella Classico shows depth and delineation in its perfumed dark fruit. The finish is long, silky and pure, with floral notes that add a sense of lift on the close. Best enjoyed relatively young. Anticipated maturity 2010-2022. R.Parker rating: 90

21      2005      WILLIAMS   SELYEM   PINOT   NOIR
COASTLANDS VINEYARD

An outstanding Pinot (a tiny production of only 132 cases). It tastes akin to liquid steel infused with black cherries and cranberries. It will reward patience as it possesses considerable concentration and acidity as well as a fresh, lively finish. This wine has a dark ruby/purple color, tart acidity, and an earthy, tannic, clipped finish. Robert Parker: 90+

22            2007 KATHRYN HALL CABERNET SAUVIGNON
                  NAPA VALLEY

One of the richest cabernets of the vintage. Amazingly soft and velvety in the mouth, yet there's a solid grip of acidity and tannins that balance the richness. Savory herb, fresh earth, cedar, tobacco dried currant and berry flavors are fully bodied, tight and firm, ending with a cedary aftertaste. Wine Enthusiast: 96

Donor: Dianne & Jerry Straus

Donor Value: $90

23            2005 NAPA SILVER OAK CABERNET

Premium Selections Silver Oak Cabernet, Napa 2005, International Wine Cellar. Good deep red-ruby. Aromas of cassis, licorice, game, tobacco leaf, and subtle brown spices. Velvety-sweet and deep, with hints of tobacco leaf, mint and herbs giving definition to the middle palate. Nicely bright but youthful wine, finishing with broad tannins. Robert Parker: 91.

Donor Value: $96

24            2006            CABERNET            SAUVIGNON-PRIVATE RESERVE GEORGES DE LATOUR

The 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon Private Reserve Georges de Latour is the strongest wine made at Beaulieu in many years. The 2006 George de Latour exhibits a dense inky/purple color along with a sweet bouquet of graphite, licorice, charcoal, creme de cassis, and sweet cherries. Deep, ripe, and full-bodied with powerful tannins, admirable structure, and superb depth, it will benefit from 2-4 years of bottle age, and should be drinkable of the following 25+ years. Robert Parker rating: 91+

Donor: Carol Emig & Michael Durst

Donor Value: $100

25      2004      Côte      DE      BEAUNE,      CORTON-CHARLEMAGNE GRAND CRU

93 points Wine Spectator: "A focused beam, this white wraps its lime, mineral, apple and vanilla notes around a core of bracing acidity. Has intensity and balance, yet this is firm and crisp on the finish for now, with real stony length. Best from 2010 through 2030."

Donor: Cait Miller

Donor Value: $100

26      2003 LANZERAC CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Hand carried from the Concert Chorus South Africa tour by chaperone Bruce Skinner, this Cabernet has inviting flavors of blackberry and youngberry with hints of cocoa, almond and vanilla. The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon is a full-bodied wine. Food suggestions: beef, lamb, ostrich, poultry, pasta.

Donor: Pam & Bruce Skinner

Donor Value: $100

27      2004      PALMAZ      VINEYARDS      CABERNET
SAUVIGNON, NAPA VALLEY

This blend of 95% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Merlot displays an impressively saturated ruby/purple color in addition to a bouquet of black fruits, underbrush, and a meaty/sausage-like note. Medium-bodied with copious black cherry and currant flavors, moderate depth, and a superficial, one-dimensional personality, it should be consumed over the next 7-8 years. Robert Parker rating: 85

Donor: Frances & Steven Brookner

Donor Value: $105

28      1994      BORDEAUX,      CHATEAU      LEOVILLE
BARTON, SAINT-JULIEN

It is no secret that Anthony Barton's efforts over the last decade at his St.-Julien estate, Leoville-Barton, is resulting in terrific wines. This estate has been extremely successful in recent vintages. An impressive, serious, classic Bordeaux for collectors who are willing to forget it for at least a decade, this well-endowed offering is a 30-year wine. The dense, murky, purple color, closed aromatics massive flavor richness, and high tannin recall the old, non-compromised, beefy, blockbuster Medocs produced thirty years ago. However, this wine possesses sweeter tannin. It is a classic, but patience is definitely required. Anticipated maturity: 2007-2030. Robert Parker Rating - 90.

Donor: M.B. and Susan Oglesby

Donor Value: $105

29        2006 CHATEAU FAUGERES PEBY, ST-EMILION
              GRAND CRU

Peby Faugeres is judged one of the best 30 Bordeaux wines, often marked R. Parker: 94-96. Deep crimson with purplish tints. A smooth bouquet with cranberry hints and a nice touch of toast, full and pleasant. A great modern wine.

Donor: Wendy & Bob Kenney

Donor Value: $120

30        2004 WILLIAMS SELYEM PINOT NOIR SONOMA COAST

Rich and dark in color, the nose of this wine exhibits aromas of wild berries, pomegranates, sandalwood, cardamom and toasted vanilla beans. The mouth is filled with flavors of raspberries, truffles, dried cranberries, roasted nuts, Asian spices and mocha. The Coastal acidity and concentrated tannins accentuate the ripe, wild berry flavors and linger into the long finish. 90 points - Wine Spectator

Donor: Ann & Paul Friedman

Donor Value: $125

31        1993 CHATEAU GRUAUD-LAROSE (ST JULIEN)

This is a vibrant, purple-red wine, a touch glossy. Burnt sugar, caramel and toffee aromas, all oak-derived, dominate the smell. Medium bodied, with creamy edged texture. Still has obvious structure, with quite a bit of tannin, especially on the finish. Wine Spectator: 88 points

Donor: Eileen & Arthur Mason

Donor Value: $125

35            2000 DOM PERIGNON CHAMPAGNE

The 2000 Dom Perignon is a gorgeous, seductive wine that floats on the palate with remarkable grace. Toasty aromas meld into freshly cut flowers, apricots and pears, with sweet notes of mint and licorice that linger on the long finish. This perfumed, inviting Dom Perignon is elegance personified, and in this vintage the wine fully merits its lofty reputation. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2019.

Donor: Asli Carome

Donor Value: $200

36            1982    BORDEAUX,    CHATEAU    BRANAIRE
                 (DULUC-DUCRU) SAINT-JULIEN

A strong effort for this estate, the 1982 exhibits sweet aromas of plums, licorice, earth, and flowers. The tannins are slightly rustic, but the sweetness of the fruit, the broad expansive mouth feel, and the wine's full maturity represent a classic Bordeaux at the top of its game. Enjoy it over the next 5-8 years.

338 IN THE SWING OF THINGS IN MYRTLE BEACH, SOUTH CAROLINA.

Get swingin' in Myrtle Beach with four green fees and cart fees from the Myrtle Beach National Company. It is valid at Myrtle Beach National SouthCreek, West Waterway, or Aberdeen courses in South Carolina. SouthCreek is an Arnold Palmer gem that winds through a magnificent setting of coastal wetlands and hardwood forests. Most golfers find SouthCreek to be the "finest" course of the three courses at National. Also, Aberdeen will take you into the game of golf in the true "Scottish" tradition. All three nines are reminiscent of those early days of golf with the "Meadows", "Highlands" & "Woodlands" nines.
